Place-based initiative that integrates achievement-oriented schools and vital, evidence-based social and community services within a networked prenatal through career pipeline.

Discussion Questions

- How should we share data about the U.S. DOE Promise Neighborhood Program Results and Performance Measures with the community, including definitions for key terms?
- When you think about the health, development, and well-being of children, which outcomes are most important to you? How do the outcomes important to you connect to those required by the U.S. DOE Promise Neighborhood Program?
- What information do you want to know about the organizations and programs currently partnering with Connecticut Children's on the North Hartford Ascend Pipeline?

Ground Rules for Breakouts

- Everyone deserves to be heard and everyone should have an opportunity to speak.
 - Online: Keep your camera on (if possible), and keep your mic muted unless you are speaking.
- Listen and respond respectfully.
- Stick to the question – time is limited, so let's value each other's time.
- Respect each other's privacy – keep personal stories in the group.
- Successful dialogue is the responsibility of all participants
- Is there anything we need to add?
